TWAS - Fellowships for Research and Advanced Training 2025

Descrição

The Academy of Sciences for the Developing World (TWAS) (<https://twas.org/>) is an autonomous international organization based in Trieste, Italy. Its principal aim is to promote scientific capacity and excellence for sustainable development in the South.

TWAS offers Fellowships (<https://twas.org/opportunity/twas-fellowships-research-and-advanced-training>) to young scientists in developing countries to enable them to spend three to twelve months at a research institution in a developing country other than their own. The purpose of the fellowships is to enhance the research capacity of promising scientists, especially those at the beginning of their research career, helping them to foster links for further collaboration.

Data Limite

October 7, 2024.

Elegibilidade

The fellowships are for research and advanced training. They are offered to young scientists holding at least an MSc or equivalent degree.

Eligible applicants for the fellowships are young scientists working in any area of natural sciences who are citizens of a Developing Country (<https://twas.org/developing-countries-south>) and are employed by a research institution in a developing country. There is no age limit. However, preference is given to young scientists at the beginning of their research career and those working in Least Developed Countries.

Valor Financiado

1. TWAS covers international low-cost airfare plus a contribution towards subsistence amounting to a maximum of USD 300 per month. No other costs will be provided by TWAS.
2. The host institution is expected to provide accommodation and food as well as research facilities.

Forma de Solicitação

Applications must be submitted online Here (<https://onlineforms.twas.org/apply/259>).
