

AAUW - International Fellowships 2025/2026

Descrição

American Association of University Women (AAUW) (<https://www.aauw.org/>) was founded by Marion Talbot, who became the Dean of the College of Women at the University of Chicago and a leading figure in higher education, and Ellen Swallow Richards, the first woman to earn degree in chemistry and a leader in the field of home economics. The American Association of University Women (AAUW) advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research.

International Fellowships (https://www.aauw.org/resources/programs/fellowships-grants/current-opportunities-archive__trashed/international/) have been in existence since 1917. The program provides support for women pursuing full-time graduate or postdoctoral study in the United States to women who are not U.S. citizens or permanent residents, and who intend to return to their home country to pursue a professional career.

Data Limite
